Gentlemen:

Please refer to your invoice of September 30th for $1.32 covering 1 copy of Wood's COMMEMORATIVE COINAGE OF U.S. sent directly to the Vancouver Public Library, Mr. E.S. Robinson, Librarian at Vancouver, British Columbia, as per our order of August 24th.

We have just been advised by Mr. Robinson that this book was never received and we will thank you to give the matter your immediate attention. Please let us hear from you and address your reply for the Library Department.

Very truly yours,

THE J. K. GILL COMPANY

Gentlemen:

Responding to your letter of November 4th, I am completely at a loss to understand why Mr. Robinson did not receive the monograph ordered by you on August 24th. We are to-day sending him a second copy and trust that this will reach his hands in due course.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
